

It is heavenly not having to deal with marketing calls all evening and having some peace and quiet in the house. We should have a right to peace and quiet. Please continue the no call program forever.